Meeting

In the absence of Derek Clark, Cliff Burkhart called the meeting to order at 7:10 p.m. at the Lakewood Board of Education. A motion to approve the minutes of the May 22, 2017, meeting was heard by Margaret Wetzler, seconded by Kevin Fischer. The motion carried.

Communications/Old Business

New Commissioner/Vacant Commission Position - Bruce Giberson was invited to the meeting, but was not present. It was made known to the Commission that Art Gold has been asked to join the CREC Board, thus opening up a position on the AAC.

Community Outreach - Rick Wallenhorst reached out to Melissa Garrett at City Hall to schedule the events for the the City Challenge games on August 11, 2017, at Madison Park. He will reach out to the Police Department, Fire Department, City and Schools to schedule the games upon confirmation from Ms. Garrett.

New Sports - R. Wallenhorst met with a representative of the group starting up a Broomball league. They had a good discussion. R. Wallenhorst advised that the process of involving the Recreation Department will take some time to work through the appropriate channels, and the representative acknowledged that, and agreed to continue to be in conversation.

Review of Sports

Basketball - Registration for 2017-18 season for all leagues opens October 1, 2017.

Volleyball - Registration will open July 1, 2017, for a Sunday night open gym format.

Flag Football – Registration will open July 1, 2017, for the Fall season.

Softball – Play has been going well, aside from the weather-related issues which have disproportionately affected the Sunday evening league. Registration will open July 1, 2017, for the Fall season.

Kickball – The season began on June 1, 2017, and is proceeding smoothly with 12 teams playing in the Thursday night league, and four teams participating in the Friday night league. Registration will open July 1, 2017, for the Fall season.

New Business

M. Wetzler inquired about participation in Lakewood Alive’s Summer Meltdown on July 8, 2017. R. Wallenhorst advised that he will let Commissioners know of opportunities to participate as plans firm up.

Kevin Fischer moved to adjourn at 7:24 p.m.; Troy Bratz seconded the motion. The motion carried. The next scheduled meeting of the ACC will be on July 24, 2017, at 7 p.m., at the Board of Education.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret Wetzler
Recording Secretary
