- II. Approval of August Meeting Minutes
 - a. Comer/Mabry (4-0) one abstention
- III. New Business

Mr. Wallenhorst told the commission that registration numbers are up from last year. Registration is still open for Cross County, Volleyball, and Travel Soccer.

Mr. Wallenhorst provided the commission the volleyball and baseball/softball flier. It was jettisoned out to everybody by email. Mr. Showalter asked if LCBA should be on the flier.

Mr. Showalter wanted to set some goals for the commission this year. The goals were listed as follows: Recruit a new member, attend at least three events, and update one of the sport rules to the new format. Mr. Comer recommended that one of the event should be attending a CREAC meeting. Mr. Wallenhorst that said they are the last Tuesday of the month.

Mr. Wallenhorst added the Babe Ruth Bat Specifications to the baseball rules. Little Southwest is going to offer 7 on 7 flag option. Lakewood Recreation is considering third and fourth grade modified flag football.

Ms. Sambrook asked about training for the coaches. Mr. Wallenhorst said we have a group of coaches that have been coaching 4th, 5th and 6th grades for years. He spoke highly of them. Mr. Wallenhorst does not want to implement any new programs until a new varsity football coach is hired.
