- I. Call to Order Roll Call 6:33pm
- II. Approval of January and February Meeting Minutes
 - a. January minutes postponed until April 8th meeting
 - b. Sambrook/Shachner (5-0)
- III. Approval of Absences
 - a. Wahome/Shachner (5-0)
- IV. New Business
 - PTA meetings
 - Mr. Wahome explained that he attended the Hayes meeting and raised awareness of the athletic opportunities available to the student body. He told them about registering online as well. Mr. Wahome encouraged each commissioner to reach out to their home elementary school to get on the PTA/PTO agenda for an upcoming meeting. The following schools were represented.
 - Hayes – Mr. Wahome
 - Grant – Mr. Porter
 - Lincoln – Mr. Comer
 - Emerson – Ms. Sambrook
 - Harrison and Horace Mann – Mr. Wahome will reach out to them.
 - Program Growth/Evaluation
 - a. Mr. Wallenhorst explained that some of the later registrations seem to come from the fact that players need a physical on file to play. Mr. Porter suggested that parents use the same one as they use for their student for the school year.

- b. Mr. Wallenhorst stated that the participation numbers are about normal for this point in the registration process.
 - c. Mr. Porter asked why there is a low number of golf participants. Mr. Wallenhorst explained that the numbers usually pick up in June for golf.
- Communications/PR
 - Mr. Wallenhorst stated that there will be a fourth email blast by Monday, March 18th. He will also work to get the baseball email blast straightened out.

V. Old Business

- YAC Goals for 2019
 - Attend three events as a commissioner
 - Mr. Wallenhorst shared upcoming events in which the Rec Department is involved.
 - June 1 – Meet the Trucks
 - June 21 – Summer Solstice
 - July 4 – Parade
 - July 13 – Summer Meltdown
 - Mr. Wahome will check on the summer reading program that takes place at Madison Park

VI. Other Business

- a. Mr. Wallenhorst looked into the Positive Coaching Alliance and it is cost prohibitive ($30/coach).
- b. Review of the All Commission Retreat postponed until April 8th meeting due to Ms. Mabry's absence.

VII. Meeting Adjourned at 7:00pm by unanimous consent
